

+ Intervening Obstacles

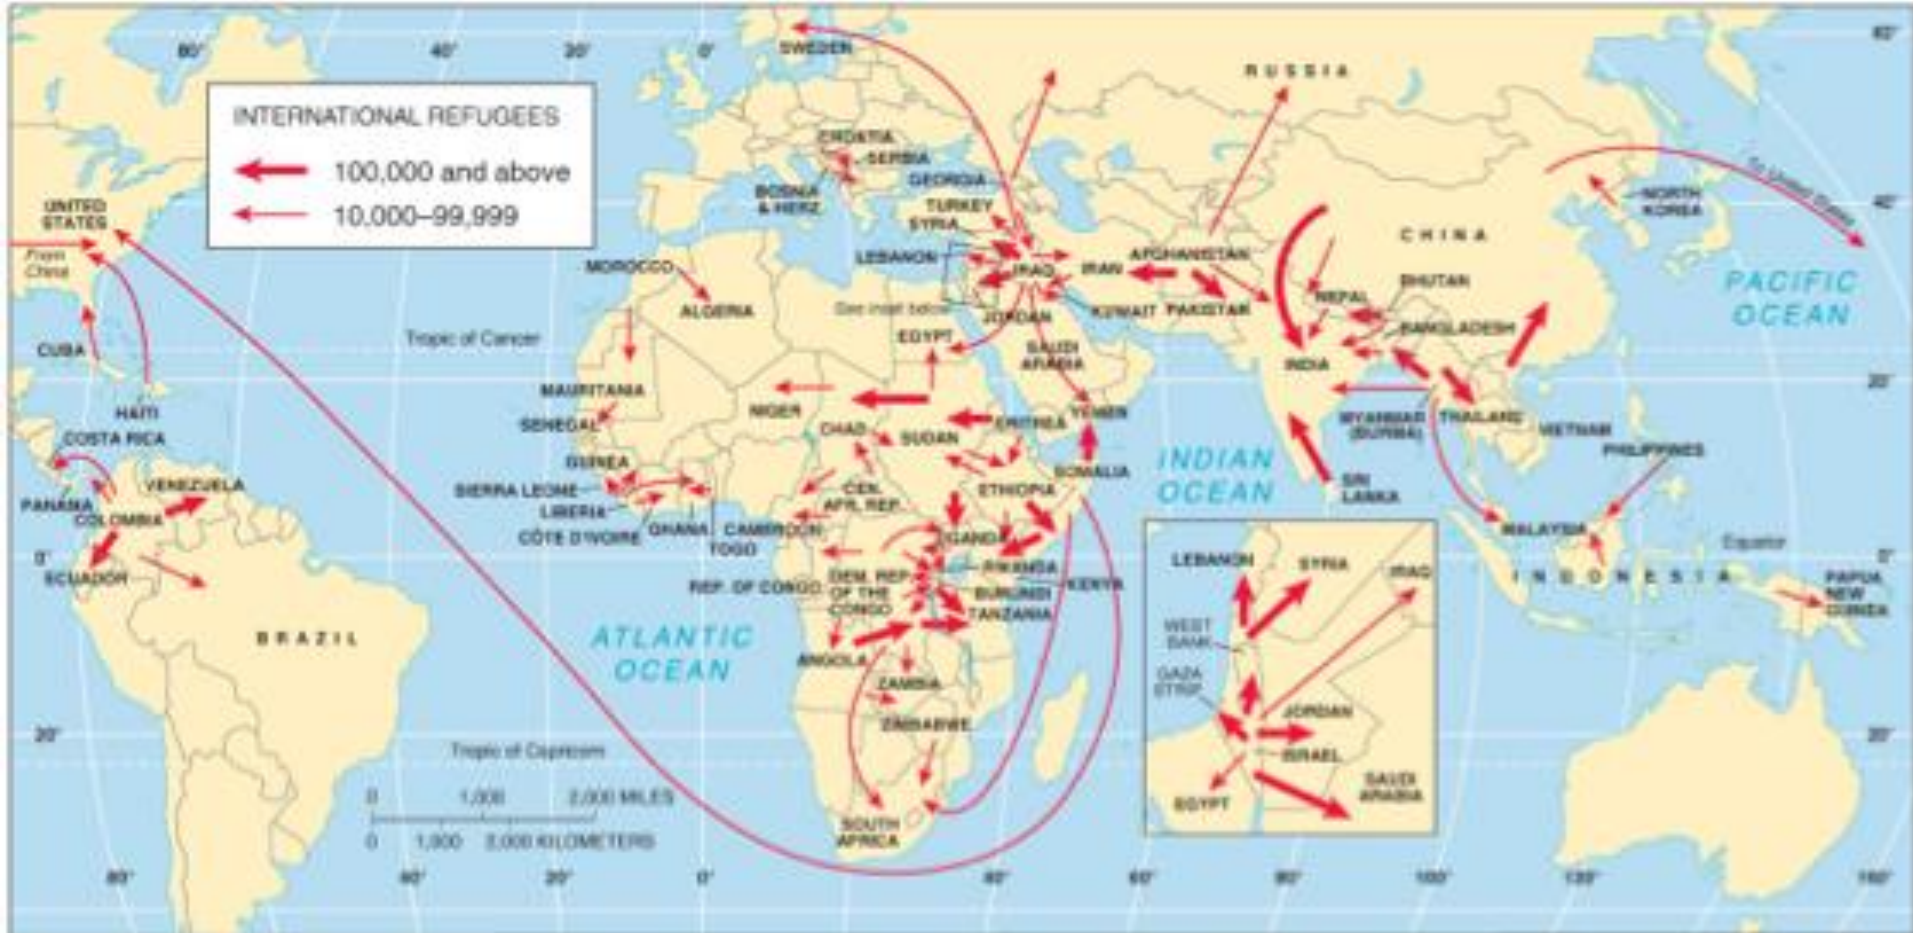

Intra-regional migration in Boston 1970-1999

8

What is forced migration?

- Unintended population movement through conflict, persecution, or developmental factors
- Refugees, internal displacement, development-induced displacement
- One of the world's biggest human problems: there are around 25 million refugees and forced migrants

According to this map, where are the largest groups of refugees coming from?

Why do you think this is happening?

ANNUAL NET MIGRATION

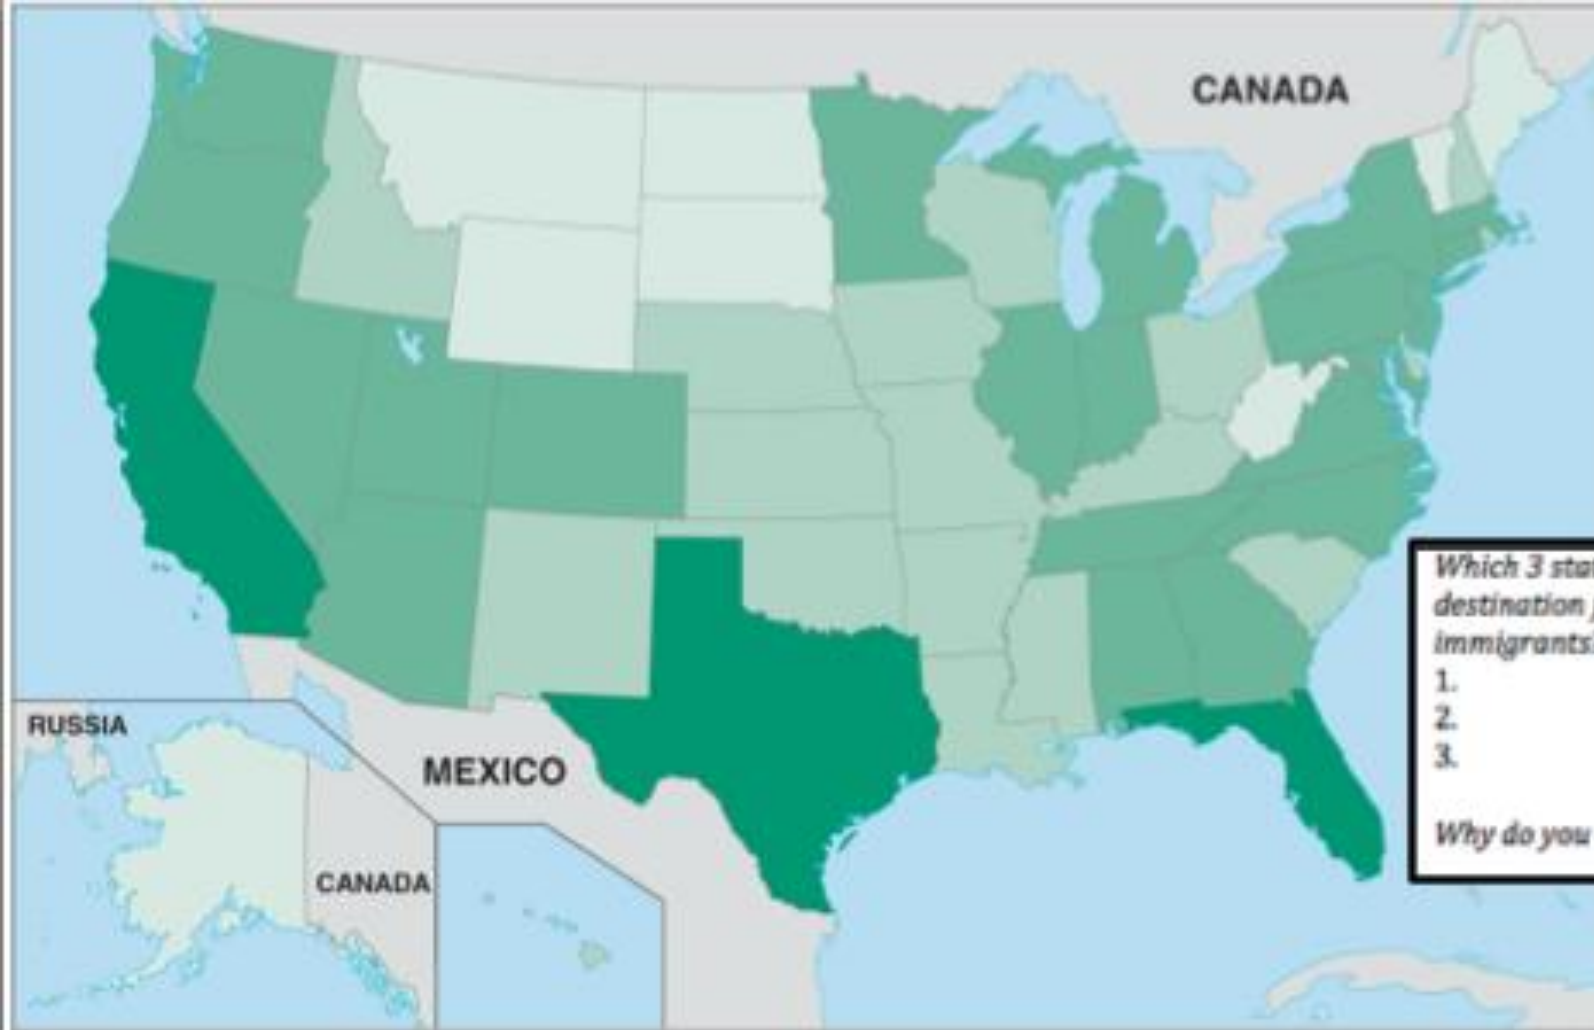

According to this map, what is the current global migration pattern trend?

- 3 regions with net out-migration:
Asia, Latin America & Africa
- 3 regions with net in-migration:
North America, Europe & Oceania

From LDCs to MDCs

Which 3 states is the leading destination for unauthorized immigrants?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Why do you think this is the case?

UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS

Since 1990 where have most immigrants come from?

There have been 3 main eras of immigration in U.S. History (Figure 3-8):

1st) Initial settlement of colonies (1700s-1840)

90% of the immigrants to the U.S. were British

2nd) 1840s-1914

Germany (7.2 million), Ireland (5.3), Italy (4.8), Russia (4.1), etc.

3rd) 1970-Present

Latin America & Asian immigrants

+ Diffusion of Immigrant Culture

- Look around you, what types of things came from other countries?

What cultural legacies did Europeans leave?

