

Geography
Political/Physical Maps

Name: _____ Period: _____

Directions: Use pages 591 and 635 to complete the political map below. Label the places only listed in the box below the map. Answer the questions using the listed page numbers. Color According.

Countries: Afghanistan, Pakistan, India, Nepal, Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Mongolia, China, North Korea, South Korea, Japan, Vietnam, Thailand, Cambodia, Laos, Taiwan, Philippines

Capitals: New Delhi, Kathmandu, Beijing, Tokyo, Hanoi, Seoul, Manila

What civilization is one of the worlds oldest and comes from S. Asia?

How has religion led to changes throughout South Asian history?

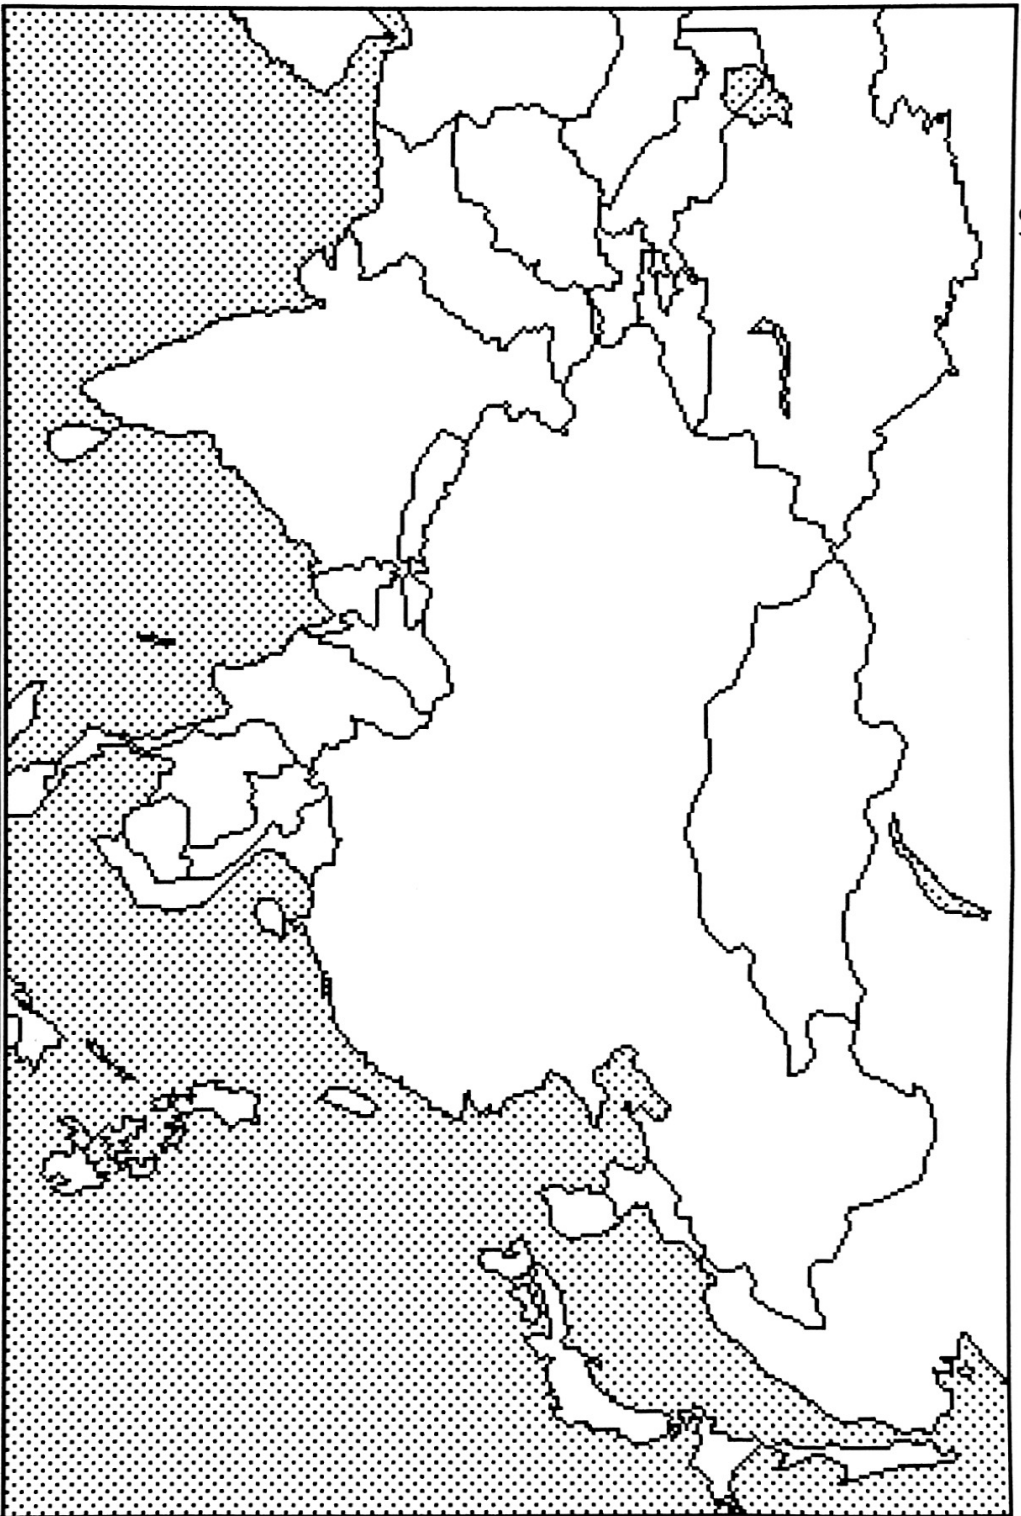

Approximately how far is it from New Delhi to Mumbai? In miles

What is the absolute location of Katmandu, Nepal?

What is the relative location of Cambodia?

What is the absolute location of Hong Kong, China?

Directions: Use pages 592 and 637 to complete the physical map of South and East Asia. Only label the features that are located in the box below the map. Color accordingly.

Mountains (Brown)	Deserts (Yellow)	Plateaus/other (Orange)	Rivers (Blue)	Bodies of Water (Blue)
Himalayan	Great Indian Desert	Plateau of Tibet	Indus R.	Bay of Bengal	Gulf of Tonkin	Arabian Sea
Mt. Everest	Gobi Desert			South China Sea	Pacific Ocean	Sea of Japan
Western Ghats
Eastern Ghats

What physical feature would allow people to travel through the mountains between Afghanistan and Pakistan?

How tall is Mt. Everest?

How does the geographic landscape of South Asia vary?

What is the Ring of Fire?

In which direction do you think the Indian plate is moving to create mountains in the interior of East Asia?

What three rivers extend far into the Chinese Interior?

What physical feature would I fly over if I traveled from Hong Kong, China to Mongolia?